What a lot of fun we have been enjoying as summer draws to a close. There were 35 people that had a great time canoeing on Bear Creek. There were some terrific water gun battles and a few swamped canoes, but all had fun. We were glad that some of the Huntsville members could join us. The Upper Ocoee rafting trip was a great success and a little different from the lower Ocoee. Don't miss this trip next year.

Thanks to Ron Paulus for the Labor day get together at his house. The water was a little rough but the food was great. Talking about food, the luau at George and Lee Nemeth's house was outstanding. The decorations really set the mood, the roasted shoulder was excellent and the grass skirt dance exhibition by a local dance troupe was UNUSUAL. Orise Fontaine also hosted a cookout featuring delicious corned beef and cabbage. Sitting

WESTERN TRIPS

I hope everyone has made their winter vacation plans and is joining one or more of our trips. If you haven't, it's not too late. Talk to our coordinators and get on the road to an unforgettable time. Just a reminder for those of you that have signed up, don't forget the joint pre-trip party November 7 at the Rustic Lodge. Also, for those going on the Italian trip make certain your passport is in order. And for everyone, keep in mind you have to be a member to go on these trips, so make sure your dues are up to date. By the time you read this there will be less than three months to our first Western trip, Purgatory, then Italy, then Jackson Hole (NASA trip), then Monarch, followed by Wolf Creek. You'll be out there on those slopes before you

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Summer is gone and our thoughts soon will turn to winter activities (skiing?). Thanks to all of you that have contributed to our activities this spring and summer. A special thanks to Marv Polan and his crew (Noel, Shirley, Sue, Joyce and Eric) for their efforts in making the Membership Wine and Cheese party another great success. We still have two major social events coming up – the Second Annual Pre-Season Joint Skier-Nonskier Pre-Trip No Trip .....Party and the Christmas Dance. Also there are a number of other activities and events coming up. Look for details in this issue of the Flakey News. See you there!

Stuart

As a tribute to Lee Marks, members of the Huntsville Ski Club will be participating in CASA's TEMP$ Day on Nov 7th. See below for details. This is an organization that Lee was very involved in. Come on out and volunteer a little time to help your community.

HSC Members Helping with CASA's TEMP$ Day on November 7th

CASA needs volunteers to help winterize homes on TEMP$ Day, November 7, 1998.

TEMP$ is a free weatherization service to the elderly and homebound in Madison County. Volunteers are needed to seal windows with plastic, caulk, install storm windows, weatherstrip, and install dead bolt locks and smoke alarms.

To volunteer, please attend one of the training workshops:
Saturday, October 24 10:00 AM
Monday, October 26 7:00 PM

For more information about TEMP$, call the CASA office at 880-0603

TRAINING

 Sunday afternoon hikes. We're doing the hikes again. Meet at the Monte Sano Hikers Parking Lot at 1:15; start hiking at 1:25 sharp. Hikes last 2 hours. Coordinator: Lloyd Marks, old phone number: 837-6328; new phone number: 881-1335. Come join us for a fun afternoon.

 Round robin tennis. Huntsville High School courts. Saturday mornings, 8:30 to 10:30. Let's keep playing until November 14 and then discontinue for the winter.

Exercise tip. Ski season is right around the corner, and it is time to get serious about getting the bod in shape. Remember, if you wait until you get to the slopes to get in shape, you have waited too long. An in-shape skier has more fun and fewer accidents.

Thanks
Hugh Nicholson

Membership Party

Another great membership party was enjoyed by the 100+ members and their 20-30 guests who participated last month. Sue Chatham and Shirly Gibb managed the food aspect superbly, assisted by Noel Pitman, Joyce Howell, and others. Jim Hall and his gang distributed the wine and Eric Markowicz provided the music.

Christie Buck, Glen Wallenta, Joyce Bishop and many others took turns staffing the front desk. The clean-up crew worked smoothly and efficiently-except that I packed some of Shirley's cookware into the trunk of Jim Hall's car. Charley Ross is keeping the unused wine refrigerated for the Nov. 7th party - see that announcement in this issue of the Flakey News.

on her back porch provided for a very enjoyable evening.

More good food and fellowship is expected at Sandy Jones new house at 6:30 on October 17. Bring a dish to share to 111 Shelley Lane in Florence. Give Sandy a call for directions, since we will not have another meeting before this event.

Shoals Gatlinburg Weekend Gatlinburg, TN (Nov 13 – 16)

Twelve Ski Club Members are signed up for this trip and upon arrival will be treated to an Italian Dinner and Murder Mystery...an evening of Pasta, Passion, and Pistols

Guiseppe (Pepi) Roni Scarfazzi was found murdered. Who did the dirty deed?
These otherwise reputable Ski Club Members are the suspects.

Rocco Scarfazzi played by Bob Tichel: Pepi's twin brother, a tough-talking no-nonsense Italian business man. In addition to his vineyards and real estate holdings, it is rumored Rocco is in the "laundering" business. He had no love for his brother Pepi but his reasons are his own...capische?

Costume Suggestion: Black three-piece suit, white shirt, black hat and cane. Limousine optional.

Tara Misu played by Vickie Dotson: Tara is Rocco's vivacious young fiancée. She was just an upstairs maid in Rocco's villa until she swept him off his feet. Now Tara keeps a smile on his face and a firm grip on Rocco's assists. Costume Suggestion: Tara is dressed to kill. She knows the effect she has on men and flaunts her charms shamelessly.

Mama Rosa Scarfazzi Played by Minnie Wallace: Pepi's grieving widow. For 25 years, Mama Rosa cooked the pasta while Pepi greeted La Sperenza's dinner guests. In all the years they were married, not once did they argue. Had something finally boiled over in Rosa's kitchen? Costume Suggestion: Mama Rosa is wearing widow's black. Pots and ladling spoons optional.

Marco Roni Scarfazzi played by Don Aston: Pepi and Mama Rosa' only son, Marco was expected to take over the restaurant after his parents retired. Marco hates waiting tables. His goal is to play on a World Cup soccer team but his Papa has been keeping him permanently on the bench. Costume Suggestion: Soccer player's uniform. Waiter's apron optional.

Angel Scarfazzi played by Paulette Daly: Angel is Pepi and Rosa' beautiful daughter. It was Pepi's dream that his "Angel" would marry a good Italian boy, have children and carry on the family traditions. Angel has a few fantasies of her own though and one of them is that hunk, Bo Jalais. Mama-mia!

Costume Suggestion: Angel is in mourning so her short leather skirt is black, complemented with a tight black sweater. She loves gold jewelry.

Bo Jalais played by Mike Dotson: Cousin of a cousin of Rocco's, Bo manages the Scarfazzi vineyards. Bo comes from a long line of French wine-makers and no one knows 'ze' grape like Bo. An important man in the Scarfazzi organization...what would Bo possibly have to whine about?

Costume Suggestion: Bo wears a beret and a casual sports jacket over a black t-shirt. Grape-stained fingers and an eye for fine wines complete his ensemble.

Father Al Fredo played by Lee Bryant: An Italian priest and long-time family friend of the Scarfazzi's. The good priest has heard their confessions and knows their sins. Costume Suggestion: Priest's cassock and hat. An overnight bag with at least one bottle of wine (for religious purposes only).

Claire Voyant played by Kathy Bryant: Rosa's best friend and astrology advisor. Claire's talents include an ability to communicate with the spirit world and see into the future. Costume Suggestion: Claire wears a gypsy-style gown with excessive makeup. She talks with a husky voice.

The Sisters Arsenic played by Jennifer Aston, Sarah Gifford and Barbara Tichel: Long time friends of the family and long time employees of La Sperenza. The sisters have been waitresses at the restaurant since it's opening 25 years ago. Costume Suggestion: Black pants, white blouse and kitchen towel worn over the shoulder. It is widely known throughout New York City that the Arsenic Sisters take nothing off no one and will tell off any customer for the slightest indiscretion. Most customers are afraid of the Arsenic sisters. Cigarettes optional.

Le Garçon played by Lynn Simms: A meek and mild host who is married to one of the Arsenic Sisters. Le Garçon also serves as the wine steward and keeps everyone's glass filled without being told. Poor Garçon...having been beaten into submission by his wife and her sisters, he hardly lifts he head. Just shuffles and pours. After 25 years nobody even knows his name. Costume Suggestion: Black pants, white shirt and white towel worn over the pouring arm. Tape for mouth optional but will be provided if necessary.

Tune into The Flakey next month to find out which formerly reputable Ski Club Member murdered our friend Pepi Roni.

Just found out that we will have another private room available...if two additional people would like to come along. Cost is $90 per person. Please give Barbara Tichel a call at 561-966-9377 if interested.

West Virginia

December 4,5,6, 1998

Coordinator - Joe Spalding

LAST CHANCE TO SIGN UP!!!!

Start the 1998-99 ski season with a great three or four-day weekend ski trip. Snowshoe averages 180" of natural snow a year (as much as Park City, Utah) and has 100% snowmaking on all trails. We had over 3 feet of new snow while we were skiing on each of the last two years and the year before that we arrived to find a 70" base (more than anywhere out west). I hope that we will find perfect conditions again.

We will leave by car/van (we can arrange car pools at pre-trip party) on Thursday (motel stay overnight or drive straight through). We arrive Friday morning and depart on Sunday afternoon or Monday. We will have a pre-trip party; a wine and cheese reception on the mountain given by Snowshoe; and a spaghetti dinner on Saturday night for the whole group. We will also have group rates on equipment rental. We will ski Friday, Saturday, and Sunday with an option to ski on Monday if conditions are good.

COST - $240

- $10 sign-up fee
- $15 party fee
- $130 condo (2 nights - double occupancy)
- $85 -3 day lift ticket

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

- $10 - due at sign-up
- $70 - due August 19
- $80 - due September 16

Monarch Ski Trip

Contact: Charlie Ross, 461-0262

Time: February 6-13, 1999

Location: West of Colorado Springs, Southern Colorado

Cost (Ground Only): Adult: $400, Senior: $365

Price estimates include 5 day lift ticket, party fee, 7 nights double occupancy, 4 persons/rental car, and signup fee. The BNA-COS airline rates should come down this fall to $148/person (travelcity and expedia lowest fare). Should this happen, I will notify everyone signed up for the trip. I am also investigating a group rate with AA out of HSV.

Looks like we will have another great trip to Monarch for the third year in a row! We now have 54 people signed up. This trip is great for beginners and experts alike. It is especially nice for a large group trip because we take over the complete Comfort Inn hotel where we have daily breakfasts, hot-tub parties, happy-hours, and evening entertainment. You couldn't have more fun on a $5000 cruise! The rooms are large, spacious, and attractive. And we still have some non-smoking rooms left.

The ski area is renown for the most consistent snow in Colorado - only Wolf Creek Pass has more snow! For beginners, they have good lessons and a good beginner area. For intermediates, there is plenty of variety and plenty of groomed trails. For more experienced skiers, the powder skiing is absolutely superb! And for everybody, no lift lines or crowds!

There are also activities for non-skiers such as snow-mobiling, cross-country skiing, hiking, gambling, and sight-seeing. And there is a good variety of good reasonably-priced restaurants for everyone.

Wolf Creek Ski Trip

Contact: Sue Chatham, 461-0262

Time: February 13-21, 1998 (President's week)

Location: SouthWest Colorado

Cost (Ground Only): Adult: $425, Senior: $375

Prices include 5 day group lift tickets, party fees, 7 nights double occupancy, 4 persons/rental car, signup fee.

The BNA-COS airline rates should come down this fall to $148/person (travelcity and expedia lowest fare). Should this happen, I will notify everyone signed up for the trip. I am also investigating a group rate with AA out of HSV.

We have 32 people signed up for this great trip!. This will be the first year for the club to do an official ski trip to Wolf Creek - although several of us have been skiing there for several years. There is now a brand new Comfort Inn hotel in South Fork. So this trip should have a lot of the attractive features of the Monarch trip such as daily breakfasts, hot-tub parties, happy-hours, and evening entertainment. The rooms are large and attractive and I still have some non-smoking rooms left.

The ski area is renown for the most snow in Colorado! They have good lessons and plenty of variety and groomed trails. And for the more experienced skiers, the powder skiing is absolutely superb! Especially in the Waterfall Area where you can do free "cat-skiing". And for everybody, no lift lines or crowds!

This trip overlaps President's Birthday - so it is a chance for our working folks to get in an extra day of skiing without taking as much vacation!
