On Saturday, 13 May, nineteen of us enjoyed a tour of the Rattle and Snap ante-bellum home at Mount Pleasant TN, near Columbia, TN. Lunch on the verandah was provided. This is one of the most grand of the ante-bellum homes. Built by George Washington Polk in 1842-1845; it has been restored to museum condition. Everything is authentic and grand. As usual, Kris Seabol did a great job of planning and managing this trip.

Dinner meeting of the Shoals group was at the Red Lobster on Thursday 18 May. Next dinner meeting will be at the same location on Thursday 22 June (after the meeting in Huntsville on 21Jun). Note that this is the 4th Thursday.

Volleyball/cookout at Ron Paulus' Lake House was on Saturday 20 May. Approximately 50 people attended -- most from the Huntsville area. We had planned to dance after dinner, but everyone had eaten too much. There were no significant injuries from the volleyball or croquet, however, Howie did manage to fall in the lake from the SEADOO. Luckily, the water temperature is just right. One guest, who tried fishing in the school of fish under the dock light, caught a fish nearly every cast. He then complained that it was too easy.

COMING EVENTS:

22 June - dinner meeting at Red Lobster at 7PM.

17 June - cookout at the Keeton Lake Home at 5PM

24 June - Ball Room dancing with the US Ball Room Dance Association at the Edgemont Methodist Church Recreation Center at 7PM. Guests are welcome. Contact Suzy Robbins(256-767-1440) with any questions.
