SHOALS

The September meeting at Red Lobster saw more talk of hiking and skiing, now that a fall nip is in the air. Of course, eating is a year around sport that all the Shoals people gladly participate in. There was good attendance at Bill and Kathy Nelson's covered dish supper on Sept. 23. The food was abundant and wonderful. The only letdown was Alabama's poor showing on the gridiron after we ate. We were glad that Jim and Kay Durrett took time out from their unpacking to join us. Hope that they are enjoying their new house by now.

Mike Jones had a good week fishing, and provided everyone with a good meal of fish at his house on Oct. 7. Mike had a new hot tub installed, too. I'm sure that it was just for his Ski Club friends! Our next covered dish supper will be at Bob and Dorothy Saving's house in November. Also, remember that there will not be a December meeting of the Shoals group. Instead, we will have our annual Christmas supper and gift swap at Ron Paulus's house on December 9. This is always a lot of fun, so be keeping your eyes open for that special gift for a Ski Club member.

The Shoals will be represented well in Gatlinburg this fall. Everyone that attends these trips always has fun. See Kris Seabol if there are any questions concerning the
